

I am OPPOSED to Sinclair Broadcasting requiring its stations to preempt network programming and broadcast a political documentary. This amounts to a political contribution, it is against the public interest, and is a breach of broadcast standards.

This is an example of one of the negative aspects of mega-media outlets: the ability to inflict their own partisan political beliefs on their member stations, as well as the public.